

Writers & Books Photography Intern
June 26th, 2017-August 25th, 2017
3-5 hours per week, during regular business hours

Writers & Books seeks an undergraduate or graduate photography intern(s) for the summer.

The schedule (both in terms of months available and hours per week) is flexible for the right candidate.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Photograph SummerWrite classes and events for our website and promotional materials
 - SummerWrite is Writers & Books' 9-week reading and writing youth camp for kids ages 5-18. Each camp runs 1 week (with the exception of our teen mastery class), either full day or half day, and include such topics as Harry Potter, Magic Tree House, playwriting, poetry, songwriting, etc.
- Create a clear and organized catalog of photos taken

Qualifications:

- Tangible photography experience
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Able to work independently
- Experience with kids is a plus

To Apply: Please send a resume and photography samples to sallyb@wab.org by March 25th, 2017. The email subject line should include your name and "photo intern."