II. Information about you

Please list your extracurricular activities since you've entered high school:

Have you had any other experiences that would be relevant to your participation in the Teen Master Workshop?

What kind of writing do you like to do? Do you consider yourself a poet, a fiction writer, a playwright, etc?

What do you read? Please feel free to tell us genres or some of your favorite books or authors.

III. High School Transcript

Please obtain a copy of your transcript (usually available from your high school's counseling office) and include it with your application when you mail it in.

IV. Teacher Letter of Reference

Please ask a teacher who you've had while you were in high school to write a letter of recommendation for you. While it does not necessarily have to be your English teacher, it should be someone who is familiar with both you as a person and as a writer.

V. Motivation Statement

Please attach a 350-500 word essay on why you want to participate in the Teen Writers' Master Workshop, as well as what makes you a good candidate for the program. You may include any information regarding your experience or process as a writer, any aspirations for the future you may have, and what you could bring to the program that is unique to you.

VI. Creative Writing Sample

Please attach a 2-5 page creative writing sample. This can be poetry, fiction, or creative nonfiction. The only stipulation is that this must be creative work, as opposed to an essay you've written for school.

Please mail or drop off your completed application to:
